Share to Buy

The outlook for Shared Ownership demand continues to appear optimistic as we enter the summer. Google searches for 'Shared Ownership' remained consistent, with a very similar demand to that seen in April.

Our website - sharetobuy.com - saw a slight increase in website sessions when compared to the previous month. Month on month levels for enquiries and registrations saw very slight dips in May, but there were notable increases - 8.6% increase in enquiries, and a 28.2% increase in new registrants - compared to May 2022.

Within this report, you will be able to discover overall industry search trends, competitor analysis and sharetobuy.com data, alongside regional and demographic insights.

We understand that information relating to each region is broad - if you require more information about a specific area or county, please get in touch!
